

Foltum Studio — реальный сгенерированный сценарий (демонстрация)

Проект: Хранитель маяка

Эпизод: «The Arrival»

Визуальный стиль рендера: human-alike-v1 — «похоже на людей», но НЕ фотореализм (кинематографично-стилизированный вид). Оригинальные персонажи, без брендов/знаменитостей/франшиз.

Сгенерировано новой логикой детального сценария на проде через реальный флоу аккаунта test@foltum.dev.

Примечание: текст `visualIdentity` ниже — это сгенерированная моделью строка сценария; при рендере видео строка `[VISUAL STYLE]` подставляется на лету из стиля `human-alike-v1`, поэтому итоговое демо-видео — не фотореалистичное, а стилизованно-человечное (это снимает модерацию Seedance).

Всё ниже — это фактический вывод модели из продакшн-БД, без ручного редактирования.

Персонажи (characterSheet)

- WREN — WREN (in her thirties, athletic, wiry build, dark windswept hair, sharp features, green eyes, fair sun-kissed skin, practical slightly worn clothing, distinctive necklace)
- ANSEL — ANSEL (late 60s, weathered lean build, gray unkempt hair, piercing blue eyes, tanned lined skin, practical rugged clothing, distinctive old sailor's cap)

Единый визуальный стиль (visualIdentity)

The episode captures a moody, atmospheric tone with photorealistic live-action cinematography, utilizing physically accurate lighting and shadows to enhance the natural isolation of the island. Cinematic color grading emphasizes the cool, muted tones of the northern wilderness, with a subtle film grain adding to the realism. The vertical 9:16 aspect ratio intensifies the feeling of isolation and introspection.
